AGAINST THE ASSESSORS

Supreme Court of the State Held That They Were in Contempt.

THEIR ACT NULL AND VOID

Corporations Have Now Secured an Order From Federal Court Restraining the Board From Action.

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, Dec. 16. The supreme court today held that Attorney-General Post, A. B. Gray, secretary of the state board of assessors and the ten assessors who sent out the assessment roll during the time that the writ of prohibition against Judge Dixon was pending in the supreme court were in contempt of court. Not only do the court hold that they were in contempt but they ordered the work of the state board of assessors in so far as it pertains to the extending of the taxation rolls declared null and void.

Hardly had this decision been rendered before Judge Hallett of the federal court issued an order restraining the assessors from again filling out the rolls, until a hearing on an injunction asked for by the corporations, can be had. This is the first decision against the revenue law yet rendered. It in no way affects the validity of the law, but it raises a number of legal questions time alone can decide. By the terms of the matter into the federal courts the validity of the bill is to be tested before two tribunals at the same time. Today's decision was the one in which Justices Gabbert and Steele differed some time ago, Gabbert holding that the state officials were in contempt, while Steele held that they were not. Chief Justice Campbell was in Europe at that time, and before the matter could be finally heard, time was allowed for him to return and hear both sides of the controversy. The chief justice delivered today's decision, which was an opinion. He first recited the proceedings leading up to the charge of contempt. He held that the immediate cause of the charge was the action of the assessors in securing a writ of prohibition from the supreme court forbidding the court of judge Dixon from interfering with the board, in proceeding with the assessment of the corporate property in defiance of the implied order of the court which was that neither side should take any action pending the decision of the supreme court relative to Dixon's power. He said: "Granting such an order was made, this court had full authority to enforce such an order, and that the respondents should not be permitted to take exceptions is very clear to my mind. The state board of assessors and the officers took this action under the direction of the attorney-general. I am sorry that the attorney-general, a counsel of such action, being an officer of many years experience, contempt is scarcely denied by the attorney-general, his excuse being evidently that he was placed in a embarrassing position, forbidden on the hand from performing certain acts and ordered on the other hand to perform those acts. This is no justification. He advised the board to proceed with its assessments in defiance of the orders of this court. Such conduct demands from this court the most severe censure. Might such action to go unrebuked would be to subject this court to repeated acts of contempt, to have its orders ignored, whenever in the judgment of a litigant such action was desired.

"This court will not inflict a fine or imprisonment as it has full power to do by the order which this court will enter, the state board of assessors will find it embarrassing to have to assess the property of the state, but it is that of these respondents. We adjudged that the action of the board in violation of the mandatory order of this court, be set aside and held for naught."

Justice Steele did not agree with the findings of the majority of the court, he will file a dissenting opinion when Justice Campbell files his opinion of the majority. Justice Steele said: "I do not agree with the court in any particular, and believe that the court has failed to take the action which it has taken. Nor do I believe the action of the respondents merited such action on the part of the court, nor do my associates attempt any authority in support of their position." I will file a dissenting opinion in this case within two days."

The decision of the court that the state board of assessors assessed corporate property are upheld.

Judge Campbell concurs in his opinion, before the attorneys for the corporations appeared before Judge Hallett of the federal court for an injunction preventing the reading of the assessment rolls. The injunction is asked for by the Pacific, Santa Fe and Pullman companies. The same reasons are urged as were set forth before Judge Hallett. Issued a temporary order restraining the board from filing until the injunction question may have been settled.

There was going the rounds of the city this evening that a race was between the assessors trying to get the assessment rolls extended again, and the corporations trying to get out the injunction, after the supreme court's decision. The corporations won, because the assessors got into a wrangle over some minor question. The corporations were ready and filed their injunction papers with Judge Hallett before Judge Campbell had finished his opinion. Clerk of the Assessors Gray, was also ready. He had the extended rolls prepared to send out again, should the case be lost, and should the other assessors order him to do so. As soon as the supreme court ended the decision, the assessors rushed over to their office in order to pass a resolution ordering the rolls again extended, but a discussion arose over whether or not the action would be legal. Before it was ended, an officer from the federal court served them with the restraining orders. Had they voted to send out the rolls and carried on the discussion later, they would have won out.

The state officials were decidedly dejected over the outcome of today's decision. They had hoped that they would be sustained, and that the only question to be settled would be the validity of the bill. However, they have decided not to give up the fight, but to continue it to the last. Governor Orman refused to discuss the case at all. He said that he was not prepared to make any statement and would await the outcome of the restraining order, which is made returnable Wednesday morning. Attorney-General Post said:

"The chief justice having reserved to himself the privilege of writing an elaborate opinion on the case, and Justice Steele stated that he would write a dissenting opinion from the majority of the court it would be out of place for me as an officer of such court to make any comment upon the decision just rendered by Chief Justice Campbell until such opinions are written and filed. I, of course, agree with the opinion as announced by Justice Steele, and I hold that the writ of prohibition issued on the 25th day of September did not impose any duty whatsoever upon the state board of assessors, its secretary or the attorney-general, that it simply required the district court of Pueblo county and Judge Dixon to refrain from taking any further steps in said cause until the further order of the supreme court. This writ of prohibition being based on the total want of jurisdiction in the district court of Pueblo county to issue a writ of injunction against the state board of assessors, being a part of the executive branch of the state government, and that the state board of assessors if they had gone on and totally disregarded the injunctive process of the district court of Pueblo county, would not have been in contempt, because the said court had no right whatever to issue such a writ, as I said before, not imposing upon the state board of assessors any duty whatever."

"If the restraining order of the federal court is made permanent, it will restrain the assessors from assessing the corporate property of the state until the trial of the merits of the law has been held."

FOR TRANSFER OF DANISH WEST INDIES

By Associated Press.

Washington, Dec. 16. As a result of the negotiations between Secretary Hay and Mr. Brun the Danish minister the last obstacles of substance to the proposition of the early cession whereby the United States will become possessor of the Danish West Indian isles have been removed. It is said that the points of difference have been adjusted in a manner to insure the acceptance of the treaty by the United States and it is even possible that the congress may pass the treaty before the holiday recess.

MILES ACCEPTS THE JUDGMENT OF DEWEY

By Associated Press.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Dec. 16. General Nelson A. Miles, speaking of the Schley court of inquiry said: "I am willing to take the judgment of Admiral Dewey. He has been a commander of a fleet and knows the responsibilities resting on a man under the circumstances. I think Dewey has summed up the matter in a clear and concise manner and I believe his conclusions will be indorsed by the patriotic people of the United States. I have no sympathy with the efforts which have been made to destroy the honor of an officer."

ISTHMIAN CANAL TREATY RATIFIED BY THE SENATE

Only Six Votes Were Cast Against It---Four Senators Including Patterson Did Not Vote---Senator Teller's Position.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Dec. 16.—The senate today ratified the Hay-Pauncefote Isthmian canal treaty by the decisive vote of 72 to 6. The vote was reached a few minutes before 5 o'clock, after almost five hours discussion behind closed doors. There were no sensational incidents during the entire time. The debate was confined exclusively to a discussion of the merits of the agreement and the policy of its provisions.

The principal speech of the day was made by Senator Teller in opposition to the treaty and he was followed in rapid succession by 12 or 15 other senators, who spoke briefly either for or against the motion to ratify.

Mr. Teller of Colorado expressed confidence that the resolution would be adopted and said that while he had no purpose to attempt to prevent that result, he was convinced that there are very few senators who are really satisfied with the treaty. With Great Britain in her present mood he believed, he said, that it would have been possible to secure a treaty which would give entire satisfaction and he sharply criticised the state department for failing to do so.

He took the position that it would have been sufficient to abrogate the Clayton-Bulwer treaty and said that England knew well enough that with that result accomplished she could very well trust the United States to maintain the neutrality of the canal as this country had been prepared to do so for many years.

Among other speakers of the day were Senators Clay, Fairbanks, McCumber, McLaurin of Mississippi, Culberson, Mallory, Mason, Tillman, Bacon and Bate.

Senator Clay was one of the southern senators who spoke in advocacy of the treaty. He contended that the treaty should be ratified because it secured the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty.

Senator Mason made a strong plea for the treaty, expressing his gratification that American diplomacy had succeeded in securing such a triumph as was this treaty over the original Hay-Pauncefote agreement.

Senator Bacon's speech was made in connection with a motion to amend the treaty. In presenting this amendment he said that he was in favor of a canal and would vote for the treaty with the Davis amendment. He opposed the treaty because he did not believe it would give the United States full control of the canal. He said that Great Britain rejected the amended Hay-Pauncefote treaty, but sent us another treaty about identical with the former treaty as amended, except as regards the Davis amendment. He considered that fact as the important feature of the whole controversy.

There was an exceptionally full senate when the time arrived for the vote, but a certainty of ratification had become so apparent that there was comparatively little interest in the proceedings. The votes on the amendment succeeded each other quickly. Senator Culberson offered an amendment to insert the Davis fortification amendment of the last session. This was defeated, 15 to 62.

Senator Bacon then offered an amendment striking out of the preamble in the reference to the Clayton-Bulwer treaty the words "without impairing the general principle of neutralization established in article VIII of the convention," also the following words in article XIII relative to the purchase of stock, "subject to the provisions of the present treaty," also all of article IV, declaring against change of territorial sovereignty. All this was embodied in one amendment and was defeated, 18 to 60.

The treaty then was ratified by a vote of 72 to 6.

The vote on the ratification of the treaty was as follows:

Yeas—Aldrich, Allison, Bard, Bate, Berry, Beveridge, Burnham, Burrows, Burton, Carmack, Clapp, Clark (Mont.) Clark (Wyo.) Clay, Cockerell, Cullom, Deboe, Dietrich, Dillingham, Dolliver, Dubois, Fairbanks, Foraker, Foster (La.) Foster (Wash.) Frye, Gallinger, Gamble, Gibson, Hale, Hansbrough, Harris, Hawley, Heitfeld, Hoar, Jones (Ark.) Kean, Kearns, Kittredge, Lodge, McComas, Macumber, McEnery, McLaurin (Miss.) McLaurin (S. Carolina) McMillan, Martin, Mason, Millard, Mitchell, Money, Morgan, Nelson, Penrose, Perkins, Pettus, Platt (Conn.) Platt (N. Y.) Pritchard, Proctor, Quarles, Simmons, Simon, Spooner, Stewart, Taliaferro, Turner, Vest, Warren, Wellington, Wetmore. 72.

Nays—Bacon, Blackburn, Culberson, Mallory, Teller, Tillman. 6.

Bailey paired with Depew and Elkins; Rawlins paired with Hanna and Sewall.

Those who did not vote, and for whom no pairs were announced were: Daniel, Jones (Nev.) Patterson and Quay.

SEVERE SNOW STORM HAS STRUCK NEBRASKA

Philadelphia, Dec. 16. Advices from all sections of the eastern half of Pennsylvania, over which area Sunday night's storm raged furiously are that to the effect that the waters covering the flooded districts are receding and that communication is slowly being restored. From Towanda comes the announcement of three deaths caused by the flood near that town, and the additional statement that two others will die from the effects of exposure. The damage to property and the pecuniary loss from the suspension of industries will reach many hundred of thousands of dollars. Dozens of coal mines are flooded, along with hundreds of industrial concerns along the water ways, thus throwing idle thousands of men. It is estimated that more than 40,000 persons have been rendered idle. The railroad situation is gradually becoming better. Hundreds of families in little hamlets have been deprived of their homes for the time being by the swollen streams and the extreme cold that set in has added to the suffering. Five hundred Italians were surrounded by water and were prisoners in their homes for 36 hours.

At Jersey Shore 200 Italians working on the railroad there were driven from their shanties by the overflowing of Pine creek.

CATHOLIC PROPERTY.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Dec. 16. Archbishop Gorman of New Orleans, had a long talk with President Roosevelt about the conditions in the Philippines relative to Catholic church property. The archbishop recently went to the Philippines and made a full investigation of the subject. Accompanying him to the White house was Tomaso Larento, a Filipino friar, who is acting as his secretary. The archbishop went over the situation at some length with the president but declined to say anything for publication regarding his interview. He will see Secretary Root tomorrow and then go to New Orleans. He will return to Washington in January when it is expected that some definite conclusion as to the church property will be reached.

ADMIRAL SCHLEY TO FILE EXCEPTIONS TO FINDINGS

By Associated Press.

Washington, Dec. 16.—Hon. Isador Rayner and Mr. M. A. Teague, counsel for Rear Admiral Schley before the court of inquiry, are holding a consultation with their client today for the purpose of outlining their future course of action. Admiral Dewey, president of the court, today was asked for a statement as to the extent to which he indorsed the findings of the majority of the court. "I have not a word to say," he replied, "not a word."

Since the court of inquiry rendered its verdict Rear Admiral Schley has received a large amount of letters and telegrams all containing expressions of confidence and esteem and offers of assistance. To answer these personally would be a work of such magnitude that the admiral has addressed the following letter to the Associated Press which he asks to be published:

Washington, D. C., Dec. 16, 1901.

To the Associated Press: I beg leave to express through the medium of the Associated Press my gratitude, and heart-felt thanks for the kind words and evidences of interest in my welfare which I have received from all parts of the United States. The magnitude of the correspondence renders it impossible for me to personally acknowledge the same, and I therefore take this means of expressing my appreciation to one and all. Very truly yours,

Winfield Scott Schley,
Rear Admiral, U. S. N.

Admiral Schley was in consultation all this forenoon with his counsel, Hon. Isador Rayner and Mr. M. A. Teague; also General Felix Agnus of Baltimore, and Congressman Schirm of Maryland. After the conference Admiral Schley authorized Mr. Teague to make the following statement:

"We have been in consultation as to what further proceedings shall be taken. Nothing definite has been determined upon so far as civil or criminal action of any kind against Maclay and his publishers are concerned. Maclay's claim that the findings are a vindication for himself and his book are absolutely spurious. There are no less than a dozen instances in the book, in which, even if he were to accept the findings of the court and incorporate them in the volume and change it to suit the finding, the book would still be criminal libel."

Mr. Teague, during the forenoon presented the following to Secretary Long:

"Washington, D. C., Dec. 18, 1901. Sir: I have the honor to most respectfully request that you withhold your approval from the findings of the court of inquiry recently held at the navy yard in the city of Washington, of which Admiral George Dewey was president, until such time as I may have an opportunity to file a statement of objections thereto, and I therefore request that you do not dissolve the court until action shall have been taken on such objections. Very respectfully,

"W. S. Schley,
"Rear Admiral, N. S. N."

"Isador Rayner, counsel for the applicant before said court of inquiry.

"To the honorable secretary of the navy."

He asked the secretary to indicate his probable action in the premises. The secretary replied that the request would be granted and his decision on the findings and the dissolution of the court withheld until the objections were received and he had taken an opportunity to consider them. He stated that he would communicate with Admiral Schley in writing and asked how long a time counsel desired to present their objections. Mr. Teague replied that they would be ready for presentation by Thursday or Friday of this week.

"We will except to the findings of the court," said Mr. Teague, "and make a demand that the majority opinion be disapproved by the secretary as contrary to the evidence and the pertinent facts in the case which the court has not considered nor acted upon."

While Mr. Teague would not say that such action would be taken, he pointed out the fact that they could appeal from the secretary's action to the president of the United States.

Admiral Schley has been relieved from further duty in connection with the court of inquiry.

Late in the day Secretary Long acknowledged in an informal letter the receipt of the request from Admiral Schley for permission to file a bill of objections. The secretary's response was brief and purely formal. It granted the request and allowed until Friday next in which to submit the bill.

SCHLEY CONTROVERSY INTRODUCED IN SENATE

By Associated Press.

Washington, Dec. 16. An echo of the verdict of the court of inquiry in the case of Rear Admiral Schley was heard in the senate today, when Mr. Jones of Arkansas, introduced a resolution extending the thanks of congress and of the American people to Admiral Schley and the officers and men under his command during the battle of July 3, 1898, off the harbor of Santiago, Cuba. In submitting the resolutions Mr. Jones made no statement and it was referred without comment to the committee on naval affairs.

A resolution heretofore offered by Mr. Vest of Missouri, instructing the committee on judiciary to inquire into the subject of anarchy and to report to the senate by bill or otherwise a constitutional method by which congress may legislate for the suppression of anarchy and for the control of anarchy, was adopted.

Little business except that of routine character was transacted in open session, the senate devoting the greater part of the day to consideration of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty in executive session.

A resolution offered by Mr. Clay, directing the postmaster-general to send to the senate a complete statement of the amounts paid by the United States government to various steamship lines for mail service, together with copies of the contract in each case, was agreed to.

A resolution offered by Mr. Nelson of Minnesota, requesting the president to send to the senate a copy of the report of Ambassador Choate relative to certain charges imposed by "London dock companies upon American flour and other American products shipped to that port," was adopted.

Mr. Vest of Missouri, called up his resolution instructing the judiciary committee to inquire into and report to the senate by bill or otherwise, as to the proper action by congress upon the subject of anarchy and anarchists. He said he did not desire at this time to enter upon a discussion of the subject. Indeed, he did not feel qualified to discuss it until he had heard from the judiciary committee. The resolutions raised these questions:

Has congress the constitutional power to legislate for the punishment of anarchists who assassinate or attempt to assassinate the president of the United States, and, if not, whether it is expedient to amend the federal Constitution to enable congress so to legislate.

Whether it is necessary to empower congress to prevent the teachings of anarchists that all governments should be destroyed, the chief rulers of such governments assassinated?

Whether it is necessary that congress shall have power to punish persons belonging to anarchical associations?

What amendments, if any, are necessary to the naturalization laws to prevent anarchists from becoming citizens of the United States and whether such anarchists should, after trial and conviction, be imprisoned or deported from the United States?

Whether it is necessary to confer upon congress the power to establish a penal colony where persons convicted of anarchy shall be confined during life?

Without discussion or comment the resolution was adopted. Mr. Clapp of Minnesota, called up his resolution providing that further discussion of the pending Hay-Pauncefote treaty should be had in open session.

Addressing the senate briefly, he said that while the resolution was introduced as a joke, the country regarded the executive sessions of the senate as a farce. He did not think there was any occasion under ordinary conditions for secret sessions of the senate. Despite every effort of the senate, the American people did obtain reports of secret sessions. While his resolution, he believed, would be shelved, he was of the opinion that the executive sessions will become a part of the tradition and rubbish of this great people of ours.

Mr. Mason of Illinois, coincided with the views expressed by Mr. Clapp and declared that the senate's executive sessions were an "ancient barnacle," which ought to be swept away. Mr. Mason was interrupted by Mr. Money of Mississippi, who raised a point of order against discussion of the subject in open session but finally the motion was referred on motion of Mr. Spooner of Wisconsin, to the committee on rules.

Then at 12:12 p. m., the senate went into executive session and at 6:33, adjourned as a mark of respect to the memory of the late Representative Broslus of Pennsylvania.

GAZETTE EMPLOYES MADE PRESENTATION

Mr. W. McK. Barbour, who expects to leave the city tonight or tomorrow for New York, where he will be married on Christmas day to Miss Daisy Ellsworth Kirk of that city, was last night the recipient, in behalf of himself and the prospective Mrs. Barbour, of a very handsome set of table silverware, the gift of the employes of the Gazette.

The presentation was made at 8:30 last night in the Gazette composing room, a few words appropriate to the occasion being spoken in behalf of the givers, by Mr. J. A. Barclay, advertising manager of the paper, to which Mr. Barbour, quite overwhelmed with surprise, responded briefly.

Accompanying the gift was the signed list of contributors to the fund which had been raised for the purpose, the list being handsomely mounted and framed.

NOMINATION CONFIRMED

Reappointment of Attorney-General Knox Ratified by the Senate.

ATTORNEY GENERAL PHILAND R. C. KNOX.

By Associated Press.

Washington, Dec. 16. Just before adjournment tonight the senate confirmed the nomination of P. C. Knox to be attorney-general of the United States. The nomination of Mr. Knox was taken up when the senate first went into executive session [illegible] o'clock, but the point was made that there first should be action on the Hay-Pauncefote treaty under the agreement reached last Thursday. The virtue of this plea was conceded and a tentative agreement was made that further considerations of the nomination should be postponed until tomorrow. When, however, the senate had disposed of the treaty, the attorney-general's nomination was again called up. The discussion soon turned upon a motion made by Senator Jones of Arkansas, to recommit the nomination to the committee on judiciary, in the meantime publishing the testimony bearing upon the case.

Speeches in favor or this proposition were made by Senators Jones and Turner, and in opposition by Senators Hoar and Pettus. It was contended by the two senators last named that the only evidence presented against confirmation had been filed by members of the anti-trust league and was very vague and indefinite. The senators favoring the motion said that if this were true there could be no objection on the part of the friends of the attorney-general to placing all the facts within reach of the public and the more time the committee should give to the subject the more the public would be convinced of the fairness of its position when ultimately taken. They dwelt at some length upon the charge made that the attorney-general, previous to entering upon the duties of that office, had been attorney for the United States Steel corporation and the armor plate manufacturers. In reply to these accusations it was said that it was legitimate for an attorney in private life to represent any interest in his official capacity and it was argued that his position as counselor for those interests could not be used legitimately against him in connection with his nomination to a position under the present administration. So long as he conducted himself with propriety his relationship as an attorney should not be used to his injury as an official. The motion to recommit was lost on a ballot—[illegible] to 7. There was no roll call on the motion to confirm, which immediately followed.

A TELEGRAPH COMPANY WANTS MARCONI TO QUIT

By Associated Press.

St. Johns, N. F., Dec. 16. Owing to fog and rain Marconi was unable to swing his kite in mid air today. He therefore went to Cape Spear to determine on the fitness of that promontory for the wireless telegraph station which he proposes to erect. Marconi will inaugurate the new year by sending a special message over the Atlantic if the steamer on which he is to sail from New York reaches England in time. He will go direct to Cornwall and take charge of matters there.

By mid-summer Marconi will have a fully equipped station here for sending and receiving messages between America and England, and another station on the Massachusetts coast.

Marconi has just returned here from Cape Spear, where he experienced poor luck. The weather was rendered extremely unpleasant by fog, wind and a rainstorm, and the inventor was unable to decide upon a site for his proposed station. He could not see the surrounding region, and a general view of the physical features of the country in the vicinity is necessary before fixing upon a site. Mr. Marconi wishes to avoid the presence of a high hill behind the station. Hills in the background are detrimental to the system if they are in the line of transmission, as they weaken the signals by causing a rebound.

On returning here from Cape Spear Marconi was served with legal documents from the solicitors of the Anglo-American Telegraph company. These notify him that the said company possesses an exclusive monopoly of the telegraph business within Newfoundland and its dependencies, and demand that he cease his experiments and remove his apparatus forthwith; otherwise the company will apply to the supreme court for an injunction restraining him from further trials.

Marconi has not yet decided what course of action he will take in the matter. But he regards this action on the part of the Anglo-American Telegraph company as the best proof of the importance of his new discovery.

LABOR AND CAPITAL MET TO DISCUSS DIFFERENCES

New York, Dec. 16. Brought together through the good offices of the National Civic Federation, leading representatives of labor and capital met here today to discuss plans to minimize wage and industrial disputes. Aiding them with counsel were several prominent students of economics and leading figures in the religious world and the opening session was notable for a number of striking expressions and comments upon the problem faced by the conferees. The storm in eastern Pennsylvania prevented Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell, Theodore Shaffer and other leading members of the American Federation of Labor from reaching New York in time for the meeting today but they will participate in the session tomorrow. Oscar Strauss, former minister to Turkey, who acted as chairman, announced that it was planned to form a general executive committee with representation divided among labor, capital and the general public and that it was hoped that it would become a tribunal of peace where the conflicting interests might meet on even footing and settle their differences in a spirit of conciliation and mutual toleration.

Senator M. A. Hanna, Charles M. Schwab, president of the United States Steel corporation, Archbishop Ireland, Bishop Potter, S. B. Calloway, president of the American Locomotive works; S. E. Durrand, secretary of the industrial commission, Theodore Marburg of Baltimore, W. H. Pfahler of Philadelphia, R. C. Kerens of St. Louis, R. M. Wak Easley of the National Civic Federation, John Phillips of the National Hatters' union, James Ryan of the International Typographical union, and Marcus Marks, president of the National Clothing Makers' association, were among the men who attended the opening meeting. Charles M. Schwab declared that he was opposed to labor unions as they were now constituted and said that they must fail as the trusts had failed for seeking to limit the output and control prices. "I am here," he said, "with a mind open to conviction, anxious to see the other side of the shield, as Bishop Potter has said, and ready to do that which is fair. It may be that this is a selfish motive, but I realize that upon the peaceful adjustment of the difficulties that exist between capital and labor depends the future prosperity of the United States. The decadence of trade in other countries is due to the hostility of labor unions. I do not deny that capital has been arbitrary and unfair. I am not opposed to labor unions, but I am against them as they are now constituted. Labor unions will not succeed as the trusts have not succeeded on the principle of limiting production. Consolidation for economy's sake, fair wages, purchasing in the cheapest market and selling in the best are the trade principles that will stand. The labor unions have become trusts. After all, the fortunes and the prosperity of the employer and employed are linked together; they are the same and the two interests should stand together. I am willing to come here and give you any practical ideas that I can and I hope that this conference will come to some good."

FATAL ECONOMY.

A VERY old maxim declares that it isn't economy to pick up pins; the time is worth more than the pins. Similarly it is not true economy to do without Ivory Soap; your health requires the daily removal of the bodily excretions which are discharged through the pores of the skin. These tiny mouths must be kept open, and they should be opened only with a pure soap.

Cripple Creek, Dec. 16.—Judge Cunningham heard motions in division 1 of the district court today. In the case of Lizzie M. Thomas vs. Joe Murphy and J. M. Murphy, the motion of the defendant asking that the injunction restraining them from taking out ore upon their lease on the Moon-Anchor property on Gold hill be dissolved was denied. This suit was filed in the district court several days ago, the plaintiff alleging that she is the owner of a one-half interest in the lease and that the defendants refused to let her know of the affairs of the lessees. In the adverse suit of Johnson vs. Johnson, the motion of the plaintiff for a new trial was denied.

The two young men have left the city and their descriptions have been sent to officers at Colorado Springs, Pueblo and Denver.

ELKTON

Special to the Gazette.

Elkton, Dec. 16.—Jerry Ferrell died this morning at his home in Eclipse gulch, from pneumonia, after an illness extending over several weeks. Deceased was 43 years of age and leaves a wife and six children. He was a member of the Cripple Creek Miners union No. 40, and also the Knights of St. John. While the funeral arrangements have not been made, it is probable that they will be conducted under the auspices of the two orders. It is stated that Ferrell carried $2,000 insurance in the Knights of St. John. At the time of his death, friends were arranging to give a benefit for him.

Miss Lottie Greene left yesterday afternoon for a visit with relatives in Colorado Springs.

E. S. Simms left yesterday for Denver where he will make an extended visit.

John Campbell is in Denver for the benefit of his health. He was threatened with pneumonia and decided to seek a lower altitude.

FOWLER

(Special Correspondence.)

Fowler, Dec. 15. The teachers of Fowler and surrounding districts held their third monthly meeting at this place yesterday afternoon. The attendance was not very large owing to the very cold weather. Those from out of town were: Miss Braun of Olney, Miss Gilbert of Mepesta, and Mr. Maize of Pueblo county.

The weather here has been very cold, the thermometer going as low as 18 degrees below zero. The severe cold and the fall of snow have been hard on range cattle, and the stockmen of the neighborhood have been obliged to bring in much of their stock, especially the small calves. Snow on the range to the south is six to eight inches deep.

The Omer Canal and Reservoir company held its regular annual meeting yesterday at Omer. The following officers were chosen for the following year: C. A. Watson, president; G. P. Davenport, vice president; J. I. Watson, secretary; and H. M. Watson, treasurer. A contract was let for the building of a new dam at the headgate and provisions made for the extension and completion of the canal. This will bring about 6,000 more acres of land under irrigation.

The future of this section seems very bright indeed. The stage of experimentation is thought to be past as last summer's season has demonstrated that with a good dam, plenty of water can be had and that crops of alfalfa, potatoes and sugar beets can be successfully raised. By the end of the coming season probably 500 acres of alfalfa will be grown and enough beets raised to thoroughly test the soil for this crop. When this region is fully developed it will be a very important feeder for Fowler, lying as it does but an average distance of 15 miles from this place. The progressive character of its settlers is demonstrated by the early founding of a school and the establishment of a postoffice, where mail is received twice a week, being carried from Fowler.

The profits from the raising of hogs in this neighborhood is forcibly demonstrated by the sale of 32 hogs by T. J. Barnard, which averaged 341 pounds per head. The bunch brought $664.90. It is said to be the heaviest drove of hogs ever marketed at this point.

(Special Correspondence.)

They were well pleased with the general appearances of things and fully satisfied with the climate. They have gone east and will recommend the Grand valley to their people.

Hon. George Smith, ex-representative of Mesa county in the state legislature, has been appointed under-sheriff by William Struthers, the newly elected sheriff. County Clerk-elect John B. Mann has chosen as his deputy, B. P. Blair of DeBeque, who will retire as one of the members of the board of county commissioners January 1, 1902. Both appointees were ardent Populists prior to last fall's election and were elected to their former offices by the Populist ticket.

Several oil companies have been organized in this city within the past month and it is probable that a number of test wells will be put down at an early day.

A. B. Johnson, of Amoy, China, spent several days in this city with his brothers the past week. He was formerly consul at Amoy and came here direct from the Philippine islands.

FLORENCE

Special to the Gazette.

Florence, Dec. 16. John Cox died suddenly in Daniel's drug store of apoplexy late last night. He had left his barber shop on west Main street and upon reaching the corner at the new State bank, reeled and fell to the ground. He had a similar attack Friday evening, but rallied. Mr. Cox was 60 years old and leaves a wife and son. He came to this valley years ago, arriving at Pueblo where he has a host of friends, and came to Florence where he engaged in the meat business and also in Canon City.

Fire late this afternoon did damage to the amount of $2,500, to the still house of the Florence Oil company's refinery east of town. In the still house were four 500 barrel tanks filled with crude oil. One of the tanks in some manner sprung a leak, the oil flowing into the fire underneath. The room was soon filled with fire and smoke, and it was but a short time until one of the boilers exploded, throwing a cloud of burning oil 100 feet in the air, badly damaging the still house. No one was killed and the fire was extinguished before any other damage was done.

ENGLAND VERY MUCH INTERESTED.

St. Louis, December 17.—In a letter received at World's Fair headquarters, George E. Parker, World's Fair commissioner to England, speaks of the great interest being taken by the people of Great Britain and Ireland in expositions. As a result of the successful Glasgow exposition, recently closed, Edinburgh has taken the initiative for a still greater exposition in 1907. In February or March next and for the following three months the colonial products exhibited at the Glasgow exposition are to be exhibited in the Royal Exchange at London. Wolverhampton is to have an industrial exposition the coming year, lasting six or seven months. Season tickets, covering the construction period of the exposition buildings, will soon be put on sale for this exposition. Ireland is to have a great exposition at Cork next year, devoted to art, science, agriculture, mining, electricity, education, music, Irish history, women's domain, etc. Mr. Parker also tells of an exposition of British arts and industries, to be held at St. Petersburg, Russia, next summer. In a former letter he made a report on an exposition of American machinery and products to be held in the Crystal Palace at London next summer.

BLIZZARD IN WYOMING.

By Associated Press.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Dec. 16. The storm that set in last Tuesday night has increased to a blizzard in this state and at many points business is almost entirely suspended. The railroads are keeping their lines open to traffic with much difficulty, and a blockade is threatened. Reports from the range in southern Wyoming tell of the demoralization of the sheep business, flocks being scattered herders dead and missing. Many reports of loss of life are being received, no one could live long out of doors in such a storm as is now raging, and when the fury of the blizzard finally subsides it is estimated that many dead herders will be found on the ranges.

GROWING OLD GRACEFULLY.

Nothing is so interesting, nothing so restful and refreshing as to see a man and woman who have lived together for a quarter of a century, starting down the shady slope of life, hand in hand, and happy or they were when she, with flushed face, heard love's old, sweet song. Marriage is often a failure, because people marry without even giving the future a thought—marry and go to work and work without recreation till they are ready to die. I once heard a lady telling her daughter what to do when she was married. "Take a trip," she said; "get married in winter time when the world is cheerless and you are short on sunshine; take a trip to the southern states and turn winter into summer again, go to Little Rock, Hot Springs, or San Antonio, and get acquainted with your husband; watch him at the hotel, and see what he likes to eat, and how and when he likes it. It won't hurt you to study his comfort a little; it would make him love you more. But you must know something of him before you are married. Never marry a man who will laugh at the jokes on mothers-in-law at the minstrel show, or who will not buy his wedding tour tickets over the Missouri Pacific Railway."

FRIDAY'S FORMALITY

HIGH OFFICIALS OF THE NATION GATHER AT ST. LOUIS.

Ground Will Be Broken For the Great World's Fair Which Will Commemorate the Centennial of the Louisiana Purchase.

St. Louis, Dec. 16. The weather permitting, all previous parades of every nature within transmississippi country will be eclipsed by the one in preparation here for Friday, December 20. By proclamation of the governors of all the states and territories within the Louisiana Purchase that day will be observed as "Louisiana Purchase Flag Day," commemorating the formal transfer of the western American empire from France to the United States, which occurred at New Orleans on December 20, 1803. In St. Louis the day will have special significance, for it will mark the actual beginning of the physical construction of an international exposition in beautiful Forest Park.

There has been an enthusiastic response to the invitations sent out by the World's Fair committee on ceremonies, asking the United States government and state officials, commercial bodies, military organizations, fraternal societies, political clubs, labor organizations, etc., to participate in the parade and ground-breaking ceremonies.

General John C. Bates, United States army, commanding the department of the Missouri, who, by the way, is a native Missourian, has notified the committee that he will be here, and that the troops now quartered at Jefferson barracks will participate in the parade. General Bates has been invited by the committee to act as grand marshal of the parade and has accepted.

The governors of several states and territories have signified their intention to be present, accompanied by their military staffs and members of their World's Fair commissioners.

Congressman James A. Tawney of Minnesota, will be the principal orator of the occasion, and Chairman Carter of the National World's Fair commission, has requested the Hon. John M. Allen of Mississippi, to represent the commission. Representative newspaper men from Chicago, Kansas City, Omaha, Louisville, Indianapolis and other cities will be present.

All railroads entering St. Louis have made a rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip from all points within a radius of 150 miles.

ALL THE COMFORTS OF HOME.

Visitors to the St. Louis World's Fair Can Take a Sulphur Bath and Have Their Shirts Washed While They Wait.

St. Louis, Dec. 16. The Louisiana Purchase exposition at St. Louis in 1903 is to have an establishment where visitors may at moderate rates be refreshed by sleep and the application of water to their persons and clothing," says Director of Works Taylor. "It has been considered the proper thing always at expositions to supply plenty of eating and drinking places, but never before has it occurred to exposition managements to go farther in the care and restoration of the physical man by furnishing bathing and sleeping facilities. There have been barber shops where for preposterous prices the visitor might get a shave or a shine, but there never has been a place where he might bathe and sleep, except the exposition hospital, and this was not open to him till his system had completely collapsed.

"At the establishment to be featured at the St. Louis fair the visitor will, at moderate prices, be able to get the following: Shine, shave, shampoo, headrub, bath—Turkish, plain, in sulphur water or in plain water—fresh collars, fresh cuffs, laundered underwear and sleep.

"We are to sink an artesian well on the grounds and the water from this, strongly impregnated with hydrogen sulphide, as is usual with artesian well waters in the vicinity of St. Louis, and supply sulphur baths, which physicians declare to have exceptional invigorating and stimulating properties. The visitor will be able to get any kind of a bath he likes, hot, cold or tepid, with massage or without, Turkish, Nubian, or what not. Apartments, small but nicely equipped, will be supplied, where, after his bath he may take a short nap, the attendant awakening him at a specified time. The apartments in most of the exposition grounds will be so quiet that sleep will come readily even to the nervous. A tired about the building will guard against the least noise or disturbance.

"While the visitor is taking his bath and his nap, the laundry will work on his underclothing, washing, rinsing and drying it. Collars and cuffs will be for sale at the building and the visitor, when he wakes, can don fresh, clean underwear, fresh collar and cuffs, and shaved and with shoes shined, he can go forth as fresh and vigorous as though he had just emerged from his room at the hotel. There will be separate establishments for the sexes, and women will be furnished the same service by female attendants.

"A tired man is a poor exposition visitor. He lacks the attention which is the first step toward enjoyment. Facilities for rest must be supplied and they will be supplied at the St. Louis exposition. The visitor is not expected and will not be allowed to take a long sleep. The natural deep, wholesome sleep which follows a bath will restore him completely in an hour or less."

LOUISIANA PURCHASE "FLAG DAY."

St. Louis, Dec. 16. December 20 is Louisiana Purchase "Flag Day." In Missouri, State Superintendent of Public Schools Carrington has followed Governor Dockery's proclamation declaring the "flag day" with a circular letter addressed to the school teachers of the state urging them to observe the day by the raising of flags over the school houses, and the further observance of the day by appropriate ceremonies in the schools. The state superintendent also in his letter to the teaching fraternity of the state asks for systematic and organized action on their part to make the educational exhibit at St. Louis during the World's Fair a complete success.

How to Prevent Croup.

It will be good news to the mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of the disease is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the rough cough appears, and it will dispel all symptoms of croup. In this way all danger and anxiety may be avoided. That remedy is used in this way by many thousands of mothers, and has never been known to fail. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon, and that is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists.

It was officially announced at the regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition company last Tuesday that within the next ten days all of the drawings for all of the main buildings of the exposition, with the possible exception of one set, will have been finished by the architects who have designed the same, and will be in the hands of the director of works for construction details and specifications for work.

LET THE FIGHT COME.

THE people in this country are now in a position to see who are the real opponents of the isthmian canal. It is just as well to have a standup and knockout fight right now. For years and years sinister forces have worked along in the dark to prevent the great work. Commission after commission has reported and bill after bill has been strangled. Like a stone wall Senator Morgan has stood fighting for the great enterprise and it is within the bounds of the possible that he will live long enough to see the work completed.

In delaying the work every trick has been applied. Sometimes the consideration of a bill would be blocked; again they would force a compromise in the form of a new commission to make new surveys, etc. Each time a year or two has been gained.

Recently M. Hutin, the president of the French scheme to construct a canal at Panama, arrived in Washington. He has been waging a campaign to induce congress to purchase the broken down scheme that caused the wreck of so many fortunes and fair names in France. It is said that he will appeal to congress against the adoption of the commission's report favoring the Nicaraguan plan.

The public belief has been that the transcontinental railroads are the ones who have been secretly opposing the canal, and that the Panama scheme was merely a cloak. Be that as it may, there is now a strong public demand for the construction of the canal and we have just completed an arrangement with England which gives us absolute control of the work.

Let the fight come on an appeal or as it may, the American people are waiting for it. They stand arrayed against the selfish interests of a few greedy corporations and the stockholders in a bankrupt concern.

TO TUNNEL NORTH RIVER.

THE great Pennsylvania railroad has planned a vast enterprise for the city of New York, one that will make the wonderful city truly continental. The famous proposes to spend fifty million dollars in building tunnels to the city and in constructing a vast underground depot. North river is to be tunneled from Jersey City and the depot will be at Seventh avenue and Thirty-third street.

It is a wonderful undertaking. The tunnels will be driven through the sand and mud something like fifty feet below the surface of the river. In these will be placed the stations and these tubes will rest on stone piers sunk to bed rock. There will be two tunnels side by side and trains will run east and west on single tracks. The tunnels will be used for passenger traffic alone and electricity will be utilized.

President Cassatt has submitted the plans to the most eminent engineers, who find them feasible. Already the company has begun to secure property and rights of way, and it is estimated that three years will be necessary in finishing the work. The lines will be carried right across the city under Thirty-third and Thirty-second streets to the East river and over to Flushing.

The value and importance of passenger travel into the metropolis can be imagined from such a gigantic undertaking, the sole object of which is to avoid ferry transfers.

POOR, BLEEDING CUBA.

LAST FALL Mr. Havemeyer, king of the sugar trust, began his open fight on the beet sugar people. He announced a fifteen million dollar fund to help out Cuban industry in this line. Presumably some of this money will be expended in Washington and elsewhere "for the benefit of Cuba." It is surprising how sentiment has warmed up for poor Cuba since the money was raised.

In the state of Colorado are four sugar factories that have cost nearly ten millions to build. The growers of beets have investments to nearly a like amount. Not a bit of sympathy is being poured out for the poor Coloradoans, yet they have the biggest infant industry in this country. None of them have been in business over three years.

Now sympathy has very little to do with determining the action of congressmen. It is sympathy for the poor sugar refiners, otherwise the trust, which wants raw sugar to come in cheaply, and not for the Cubans that all this sentiment springs from.

If things go on as they are, in ten years the United States will be making all the sugar that the country can use, and leave a bit for sale to outsiders. There is no danger that it will not always be cheap enough. If the beet industry becomes an octopus there will be knights errant in those days ready to go forth and grapple with it.

It is consoling to know that the congressional committees have promised Mr. Oxnard, at the head of the beet sugar industry in this country, that the industry shall be given a hearing before measures are introduced to change the schedules on sugar. It had begun to look like a stampede under a cloak of sentiment.

Wanamaker's paper, the North American, has begun a campaign against the Western Union Telegraph company, to prevent its leasing wires to pool rooms and race tracks. It argues that these places could not operate their peculiar form of gambling without the aid of the telegraph company, and that the best way to strike at them is to strike at it. It holds that it is a blot on the nation that a great corporation, deriving its franchises from the people should be permitted to set the laws at defiance and continue in a destructive and criminal business. Ministers, teachers and others are asked to use their influence to begin an agitation against the gigantic monopoly which uses its vast power for nefarious purposes.

MARCONI'S EXPERIMENTS.

THE most interesting piece of news in the Sunday papers was the announcement that Signor Marconi has been able to send messages, or at least make impressions, across the Atlantic ocean by means of his wireless telegraphic apparatus. All of the papers starred the announcement. It is an interesting statement, but it does not necessarily mean that wireless telegraphy is perfected to an extent that it comes of commercial use. In fact the experiments at the time of the yacht races the past fall demonstrated that it is yet available only in a very limited way. It is of interest to know, however, that the radius of the impressions has been extended. Previous to these experiments one hundred and fifty miles was the longest distance accomplished.

The experimenters with wireless telegraphy are on the highway to success apparently, but we predict that it will be many years before success is assured. If ever. When Russell Sage begins to unload Western Union stock it will be time to begin throwing up our hats and hurrahing for the success of the new method. Every honor is due Signor Marconi for his untiring efforts. Next to the announcement itself the most interesting thing about Sunday's news is the fact that two days have passed and Nikola Tesla has not yet sent out a statement that he projected impressions across the ocean two, three or ten years ago.

MAROONING THE ANARCHISTS.

AT FIRST we had rather grave doubts on the question of marooning the anarchists, but we rather begin to like it. The anarchists themselves are evidently getting scared, and are issuing their edicts, even making covert threats at the president. They are nervously anxious at least.

When as able a lawyer and statesman as Senator Hoar advocates the policy it will bear investigation at least. We take the victims of smallpox, yellow fever, etc., and sequester them. Then why not try it on the theorists affected with blood madness. English criminals were sent out to the penal islands and Americans have been confined at the Dry Tortugas.

All the world is studying the anarchist question just now and watching the anarchists. Its followers are suffering the penalty of advocating such doctrines. They are barred from membership in all fraternal organizations, they find it impossible to rent halls and public gathering places and some have met with violence.

Civilization is looking about it for some way to treat the disease. It may not be found in marooning, but if experiments are to be tried that is as good as any that has been offered. It is certainly logical. Give these people a chance to work out their theory. Men willing to give up their lives for an ideal should not hesitate to give a few years to experimental life on Anarchy island.

GALLINGER'S ASSASSINATION BILL.

SENATOR GALLINGER has introduced a bill in the senate to enact a law that will protect the presidents from assassination. That it will not protect them at all is thus set forth in a very striking manner by the New York Press:

Punish assassins it may, with more adequate penalties in the case of frustrated attempts to kill them, but protect presidents it will not, if the American people rely solely on congress legislation to accomplish that result. The bill provides the penalty of death not only for the murder, but for the attempted murder of a president. But observe that the principal and the accomplices in the assassination of Lincoln paid the death penalty, yet there came an assassin to take the life of Garfield; that he also died on the scaffold, yet still another came to murder McKinley.

No failure of legal penalty imposed may be held responsible for the crime committed at Buffalo. Yet must we concede that there was and is responsibility in the American people themselves in their toleration and consequently in their encouragement of un-American conditions among them. The breath of anarchism and assassination blew hot over this country for five years, yet the public did not stifle it, nor even shrink from it till they shuddered over the murdered corpse of William McKinley. If that breath has cooled, and it is waited faintly and in dark corners where formerly it was borne blistering and broadcast, it is not because of senate bills nor house bills, nor any laws that congress may make. It is because of the more serious and thoughtful attitude of the American people.

Senator Gallinger may introduce bills and congress may enact laws to punish assassins, yes! But the suppression of assassination by the suppression of its incliters that is the work of the people of the United States. Let us not forget it this year, nor the next, nor for many years afterward!

President Roosevelt has announced that he proposes to appoint Francis E. Baker of Goshen, Ind., to the circuit court of appeals for the Seventh district. A remarkable condition will then present itself, that of a father and a son occupying judicial seats in United States courts, for the new Judge Baker is a son of Judge John H. Baker, now federal judge for the district of Indiana. The decisions of the father will have to be appealed to the son's court. The elder Baker was once a law partner of Judge Woods, United States judge in Chicago for many years, and young Baker was a law student under them. It is a remarkable incident that three United States judges should come from one law firm.

Dr. Richard T. Ely of the University of Wisconsin lectures in this city this evening, and will be entertained during his stay here by the educators of the city. Dr. Ely is one of the most distinguished thinkers and instructors in the land on sociological topics. One may not always agree with his conclusions but one must always admire the original thinker and the fearless advocate. Dr. Ely is not a stranger to the citizens of Colorado Springs, having lectured here some six or seven years ago. Undoubtedly the distinguished lecturer will face a large audience this evening.

The Spanish government had an order with a Scotch firm of ship builders for two torpedo boats at the time of the war with the United States. The builders did not complete them for a year or more after the war was all over. Instead of adopting resolutions thanking the builders for saving these boats from being sunk by not having them ready in time for Dewey and Schley, the Spaniards became angry. They brought suit for damages in a Scotch court and have recently been nonsuited because the action was not brought in the name of the king personally.

Dr. Richard Ely Will Speak Here Tonight

Professor Richard T. Ely, who lectures on "The Twentieth Century" in Perkins hall tonight has had a remarkable career.

A native of New York, Dr. Ely's early education was obtained in Dartmouth college and Columbia university. There he graduated in 1876. He continued his studies abroad, especially in the German universities, and received the degree of doctor of philosophy from the University of Heidelberg in 1879. On his return to the United States he was appointed to the chair of political economy in the Johns Hopkins university. This position he held until 1892 when he accepted the position of professor of political economy and director of the school of economics, political science and history at the University of Wisconsin. Dr. Ely's acceptance of this position created a considerable sensation in educational circles in the east. Said the Boston Herald, speaking of Dr. Ely's transfer to Wisconsin: "This will give a state institution in the northwest the precedence in political and economic science of any other institution in this country. It will do for the University of Wisconsin what the school of philosophy has done for Cornell university. It will give it precedence for the whole country."

The success of Dr. Ely's work at the University of Wisconsin bears out this prophecy. He is looked upon as the leader in this country of the school of economists who have emphasized the social side of economic science. To him is largely due the credit of the introduction of German methods of investigation and treatment of political economy.

Professor Ely was one of the originators of the American Economic association and is at the present time its president, having been elected at Ithaca, N. Y., in 1899 and re-elected at Detroit, Mich., in 1900.

To merely enumerate Dr. Ely's works would take up a large part of a column. It is largely to Dr. Ely's pen that America owes the remarkable revival of popular interest in economic science which has been witnessed during the last decade. Several of his works have been translated into Italian, Dutch and Japanese and his "Outlines of Economics" has been printed in raised characters for the blind.

For a number of years he was the editor of Crowell's "Library of Economics and Politics" and is at present editor of Macmillan's "Citizens' Library."

The press in the cities of the Pacific coast speaks very highly of the recent lectures Dr. Ely has been giving. He lectured last evening in Denver and goes from here to Omaha.

Judge Seeds Heard Motions Yesterday

Judge Seeds spent a busy day yesterday in the civil division of the district court. It was a motion day and a number of cases were disposed of on motions. Among the cases heard and the action taken in each are the following:

Joseph H. Dayton vs. M. Kinney, judgment for the plaintiff for $150. Attorneys Gardner vs. J. O. Hardwick.

M. Kinney vs. J. S. Wilde et al., motion to quash service of summons sustained. Plaintiff asked an appeal to the court of appeals.

El Paso Mining company vs. Byron Cox, dismissed at cost of defendant.

Mary Murphy, administratrix, vs. Kenneth McKenzie, defendant's motion for a new trial denied.

Edwards vs. Orphan Bell Mining company, dismissed at cost of plaintiff.

Daniel H. Rupp, trustee in bankruptcy, vs. Nellie B. Barker, dismissed at cost of plaintiff.

The hearing on the writ of habeas corpus of J. M. Gotham was continued one week.

A divorce was granted Louisianna Musser from her husband, J. L. Musser.

In the county court yesterday the case of Newberry vs. Hackley et al. was dismissed.

Frank Carlson Will Lay Cement Flooring

Frank Carlson, proprietor of the Colorado Artificial Granite company, yesterday awarded the contract for laying the cement basement floor of the new court-house. Five bids were filed by the county commissioners, Carlson's being the lowest, $1,899.81. The commissioners decided to let the contract to Mr. Carlson, provided he will give a $1,000 bond, which will be done.

The work of putting in the cement floor of the basement will be started at early date. It will be completed before the laying of the fancy tile is begun. Some of this tile will be used in the basement, but the first and second floors will be the most elaborate.

The bids opened yesterday were as follows:

Frank Carlson	$1,899.81
Colorado Springs Stone & Cement company	2,606.00
Renton Fireproofing company, Denver	6,700.00
Franklin Fireproofing company, Dallas, Texas	2,274.58
H. B. Brigham	2,456.00

Pleaded Guilty and Then Withdrew Plea

B. Gothard, who is being prosecuted by the state board of dental examiners for having practiced dentistry without a license, was arraigned yesterday before Judge Seeds in the criminal division of the district court. Gothard was represented by an attorney, whose advice he pleaded guilty to the charge.

The attorney stated that his client had pleaded guilty so that sentence might be passed immediately and an appeal taken to a higher court on questions of law. The attorney believed that the law regarding the practice of dentistry without a state license did not warrant the prosecution of Gothard and was anxious to have the case tried in a higher court.

Judge Seeds refused to pass sentence to accommodate the accused dentist in his appeal. He said that he wanted the case tried on its merits in the district court. If there was a conviction the judge said, then would be the time for an appeal.

Accordingly Gothard withdrew his plea of guilty and entered one of not guilty. The case will be tried during the January term of court.

Hunter, who has completed a sentence in the county jail for having obtained goods under false pretenses from Jones & Wellington, druggists, and who is unable to pay a fine imposed, was released by order of Judge Seeds.

Prominent Citizen Was Taxed for Contempt

Because he neglected to obey a jury summons, John E. Hundley, a widely-known broker and mining man, was taken before Judge Seeds in the district court yesterday and lectured. The costs of the proceedings were assessed against him.

Mr. Hundley was served with a summons to appear as a juror at the beginning of the September term of the district court. He did not appear and when a sheriff's deputy was sent after him it was learned that he was out of town. The case was dropped for the time being, but yesterday Judge Seeds ordered that Mr. Hundley be brought into court. He was charged with contempt of court.

When Mr. Hundley appeared and was asked to explain his neglect to answer the summons at first he gave two reasons. He said that at that time his family was in California and that his wife was ill there. He forgot all about the summons and went to California. He also said that he had served ten years as a fireman in this city and thought that exempted him from jury duty.

Judge Seeds gave the offending broker a little lecture and ordered him to pay the costs of the proceedings. He told Mr. Hundley that it was a citizen's duty to obey all orders from court.

Goldmark's Sonata To Be Played in Europe

Letters recently received from Mr. Goldmark, who is now in Berlin, bring the news that his violin sonata is to be performed in Vienna, during the month of February, and it has been announced already in all the leading Vienna papers. It is brought under the best auspices for Concert Master Prill of the Royal Opera, has included it in the program of one of his quartet concerts, which rank among the very best and most select musical events of the Vienna season. This is probably the first time that a musical work composed in Colorado Springs has been honored with a European production. It is a striking endorsement of Mr. Goldmark's ability for, musically, Vienna is the most critical city in the world. To have a work performed there stamps the author as a musician of international rank and importance. Mr. Goldmark's many friends here will be much pleased with this success.

ON NOTES

PHILIP HALDEMAN BRINGS SUIT FOR $275.

Manitou Property Involved in Another Action Filed Yesterday in the District Court.

Two new suits were begun yesterday in the district court.

Phillip Haldeman filed suit against J. A. Buster, John Brady and N. B. Humes to recover $274.98 said to be due on two promissory notes drawn by the defendants in favor of the plaintiff on October 20, 1899. Interest at the rate of 8 per cent is also asked.

A suit asking the reformation of a deed to property in Manitou was begun by William Roberts against George W. Bement, John Hulbert, John R. Hulbert, Agnes C. Hulbert, Charles Thurlow, executor of the estate of W. B. Perkins, and the Ladies Charitable and Aid society of Lawrence, Mass. The suit is a friendly one.

JOHN W. PROUDFIT WAS HURT IN A RUNAWAY

John W. Proudfit was injured, just how seriously has not yet been determined, in a runaway accident yesterday afternoon on the west side.

The team returned to the stable after running back to Colorado Springs and a search was instituted for Mr. Proudfit. He was found on the west side suffering from a severe blow on the head. He was asked where he resided and told the men that he lived on North Nevada avenue, designating the present residence of F. P. Castello, in which Mr. Proudfit did reside some years ago. When it was found that he was injured physicians were summoned and they stated that there was a slight concussion of the brain, the exact seriousness of which could not be determined last night. Mr. Proudfit was taken into the Castello home and remained there last night.

He was attended by Drs. Swan and Dennis and at a late hour last night was reported as resting easily.

GARFIELD ART EXHIBIT NETTED GOOD PROFITS

A conservative estimate of the profits made by the art exhibition of the Garfield school is $300. The exhibit closed a three-day session yesterday. The school received a number of pictures and plaster casts which it sold at some profit, and quite a large revenue was derived from the sale of refreshments and bonbons.

The teachers and principal of the school, as well as the pupils, feel very much gratified over the results of the exhibit. A complete and accurate accounting of the receipts cannot be ascertained until tonight, when a meeting will be held and all the money will be turned in. The proceeds of the sale will be used to purchase art works for Garfield school. The corridors and different rooms will be decorated.

MUSICAL RECITAL AT COLORADO COLLEGE

The students of Colorado College Conservatory of Music gave a very enjoyable recital at Perkins hall yesterday afternoon. There were several instrumental solos of merit, one of the best being that of Miss Helen Adamson, a blind girl of remarkable talent. Miss Perry's two productions on the pipe organ were greatly appreciated. Mr. Slade's barytone solo showed that his voice will be very good with further cultivation, although his tones were somewhat indistinct. Of the three young ladies who sang, Miss Hall made a pleasing impression, but was almost too frightened to judge of her voice. Miss Beard's tones were rich and full and showed the making of a splendid contralto voice. Miss Perry's charming personality and fine soprano voice were displayed to good effect in a difficult "Spanish Serenade," which she sang with wonderful ease.

Much credit is due to the accompanyist, Mr. Cleverly, and to the instructors of the conservatory, Prof. Crampton, Prof. Bowers and Miss Fields.

REDUCED SERVICE HAS GONE INTO FFFFCT

The change in the passenger train service of the Short Line, announced Saturday, went into effect yesterday. Two trains each way are dropped until the heavy summer traffic begins. The 8:35 and 8 a. m. trains for Cripple Creek were abandoned and the 12:40 and 11:[illegible] p. m. trains from the camp to this city were also taken off. The winter traffic did not require as many trains as were run previously and the management of the road decided that the engines could be used to better advantage in hauling freight.

There were no new developments yesterday in the rate war between the Short Line and Colorado Midland.

JUSTICES DID BIG MATRIMONY BUSINESS

Two marriages were celebrated by the justices of the peace yesterday. In both instances the happy couples were Colorado Springs people.

Justice Wing married John M. Lynch and Ethel Marie Humphrey, and Justice McClelland performed the ceremony that made Clyde Basham and Lilly Moore man and wife.

"KING DODO" TONIGHT.

The Castle Square Opera company's special production of the new comedy-opera, "King Dodo," will be the attraction at the Opera house this evening. This piece succeeded in creating something of a sensation during the past summer by playing a continuous engagement of five months with unabated success in Chicago. This achievement alone should strongly recommend the attraction to local theater-goers, and it is likely that every reader of the newspaper is more or less familiar with the popularity of the new opera with Chicagoans and visitors to the Windy city during the long run. Frank Pixley, the young newspaper man, who has recently achieved fame as a librettist, is responsible for the book of "King Dodo," and Gustav Luders, creator of a great deal of popular music, provided the score. "King Dodo" is a typical comedy monarch it is said, but the story is declared to be entirely original and a decided departure from the beaten path. The piece abounds in bright lines and ludicrous situations, and there are enough pretty musical numbers to satisfy the most ardent devotee of this branch of the art. It is promised that the complete company of 80 people, all the elaborate scenic adornment, and every feature that characterized the production during its long and popular stay in Chicago will be brought to this city. The original cast is retained and embraces prominently, Raymond Hitchcock, Cheridah Simpson, Gertrude Quinlan, Miss Del-matta, Greta Risley, Elsa Ryan, Edward A. Clark, Arthur Wooley and Charles W. Meyer. Another gratifying feature of the performance is the special orchestra which has been an important adjunct to the production from the beginning. "King Dodo" is under the auspices of the Castle Square Opera company, the organization which has been identified with so many meritorious presentments of high-class opera during the past five or six years, in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, St. Louis and Chicago. It is believed this event will be one of the most conspicuous of the year in this city.

CONSOLIDATED MINES COMPANY DECLARES $190,000 DIVIDEND

This Extra Christmas Distribution Is Made Possible by the Splendid Profits From the Wild Horse Mine.

The directors of the Consolidated Mines company met yesterday and declared the largest monthly dividend yet announced by a Cripple Creek Mining company, being at the rate of 16 cents per share on the 1,900,000 shares at which the company is capitalized, amounting to $190,000. The regular rate paid by the company is one cent a month, but owing to the bonanza strike made in the Wild Horse mine, which the company owns, it is enabled not only to declare this Christmas dividend, but it is probable that the regular dividend rate will be at least doubled from now on, so large are the earnings of the company.

The Consolidated Mines company was organized about six months ago, being a consolidation of the Consolidated Gold Mines and the Bull Hill company, and represents over 100 acres of choice ground on Bull hill. The Consolidated Gold Mines company had paid $169,000 in dividends before the merger was effected, while the Bull Hill company had paid $80,000. Since its organization the new company has paid $114,000, so that the total amount which will be paid when the extra dividend is distributed to stockholders on Christmas day, will amount to $324,000.

There have been other large dividends paid before by Cripple Creek mining companies, before. The Gold Coin, which as well as the Consolidated Mines company, is managed by the Woods Investment company, once paid an extra dividend of $100,000, and the Isabella in the days when it had ore which ran into the thousands of dollars a ton, paid $135,000 a quarter, while the Stratton's Independence, during the time when the English management was zealously cutting the mine, paid $400,000 a quarter. But no dividend which parallels in the present one has yet been declared, and, from the reports which come from the property, it would appear that no mine in Cripple Creek has had a showing which parallels the wonderful body of ore which Wild Horse has opened in three levels.

Mr. F. M. Woods, who is manager of the company, was in the city yesterday and stated that the ore had now been opened in the 765-foot level for a distance of about 40 feet, and that the values were all that had been anticipated. The assays which were first taken, showing bonanza values, have been duplicated right along, and there is evidence to warrant most sanguine hopes for the development of the shoot at this depth. The mine has been producing for the past three months something like 60 tons a day, and when the ore runs liberally into the ounces of gold to the ton, it can readily be appreciated what the earnings of the company have been.

The shaft is now 765 feet deep, and after the first of the year it is to be sunk an additional 200 feet, which will put it at the level of the United Mines tunnel, which will connect the property directly with the Economic mill, owned by the Woods Investment company and where a large portion of ore from the mine will be treated, thus making a great saving.

The Consolidated Mines company has one of the brightest outlooks of any property in Cripple Creek. Not only is its present showing of ore so splendid, but from the great extent of its holdings, as yet unexplored, it has prospects which should assure it a long life.

GOLD DOLLAR-MABEL M. RATIFICATION

Three Meetings Held Yesterday Approved of the Consolidation, Which Will Now Go Through as Proposed by the Directors.

The formal ratification of the Gold Dollar-Mabel M. consolidation took place in three meetings held yesterday morning. There was a large representation of stock at each meeting, and there were no dissenting votes, so that the deal will go through by the unanimous consent of the stockholders just the way the directors proposed it.

The meeting of the Gold Dollar company was held in the offices of Tucker, Ballard and company, and that of the Mabel M. and the Beacon Hill Mining and Townsite companies in the Woods offices in this city, and a great deal of satisfaction was expressed on all sides regarding the fairness and advantages of the consolidation.

The merger, it will be remembered, involves something like 60 acres of ground on Beacon hill, including the Mabel M., Gold Dollar, Beacon Hill M. and T. companies, and some odd pieces of ground owned by the Woods Investment company. The capitalization of the company is 2,500,000 shares, out of which the Gold Dollar receives 700,000 shares and the Woods interests 1,400,000, leaving a very substantial amount of stock in the treasury.

Although the action of Gold Dollar on the market has not indicated a very great approval of the consolidation so far as that company's portion of the merger is concerned, it is thought that the dissatisfaction lies only on the part of those who are not familiar with all the reasons which urged the consolidation, and with the advantages which will accrue from it.

ALAMO STRIKE MUCH IMPROVED

The Discovery of Ore Along the Hanging Wall of the Vein Taken as a Promising Circumstance.

The vein recently opened up in the Alamo mine on Gold hill, revealed another good body of ore yesterday when a shot was put into the hanging wall, and assays equally as good as those found along the foot wall of the vein were obtained. The company has been drifting from the bottom of the 80-foot winze, and has opened the vein for several feet, finding the ore body about one foot in width, and averaging good [illegible]

The discovery of the ore along the hanging wall is thought to predict the possibility that after a few more feet of drifting has been accomplished the mineralization will extend between the two streaks of wall, thus giving an excellent shipping value to the whole width of the vein, about five feet.

The company has now saved a few tons of the ore, and when a little more is extracted a trial shipment will be made. There is evidence that a good body of the mineral has already been opened, and the management is sanguine of the future developments.

MINING NOTES AROUND TOWN

As usual, the directors of the Gold Coin and New Zealand Consolidated companies met on the Monday following the 15th when the regular day of meeting fell on Sunday, and declared the regular monthly dividend of the two companies. The Gold Coin disbursement is at the rate of three cents a share, and the New Zealand company declared the usual 40 cent a share dividend, both of which will be paid on the 25th inst. to stockholders of record five days before.

RECENT SHIPMENTS MADE; OTHERS READY TO GO.

The output from Stratton's Independence will be heavier in tonnage this month than in many months in the mine's history. From nine to ten broad gauge carloads are being loaded daily and none of the cars carry less than 20 tons. There are 22 ore sorters employed and most of them are working extra time.

Lessee Kellum of the Sedan on Galena hill, is shipping weekly from the ore body opened in the 100-foot level. Two days ago a strike was reported from this property, but it develops that it was only an improved condition in the value of the ore. The injunction which prevented Kellum from shipping was removed by the court a few weeks ago, and the royalties are now paid into court, pending the decision as to whether the Sedan or the Sunshine is entitled to the ore. The case is expected to come to trial before the first of the year.

Three four-horse teams are kept busy hauling ore from the Ogilvie lease on block 16 of the Anaconda company. The ore body is an immense one. Drifting at about 40 feet from surface the lessees are breaking from 10 to 12 feet of ore. Nearly every pound hoisted to surface is of smelting grade. It is reported on good authority that $20,000 cash has been offered Ogilvie and his partners for a transfer of the lease, but the offer was refused. It would take twice that sum to purchase it.

Kerr & Barton, leasing on the Rhinoceros, owned by the Gould company, will make a 20-ton shipment about the 20th. This ore will be taken out in sinking and according to assays will average between $300 and $400 to the ton. In the bottom of the 82-foot shaft there is now showing 16 inches of ore and assays show values of from $300 to as high as $1,000 to the ton.

Three shifts of engineers have been put on at shaft No. 2 on the Vindicator. All the ore that can be hoisted is being taken out. It is the purpose to double all former productions from that section of the Vindicator ground during the present month. The machinery at shaft No. 1, which was badly damaged in the accident about a week ago, will be in condition to resume operations about January 1.

There are three sets of lessees now at work on the Triumph, on Battle mountain. A steady production of several carloads of ore a month is being made. H. W. Parkinson & Co., leasing at the 400-foot and other levels, are developing the Ajax shoot. It has been opened for 40 feet.

The first carload of ore from the Elkton dump has been sent out. Regular shipments from this time forward will be made by the lessees. The dump contains about 250,000 tons of rock and the company expects to make at least $100,000 out of it.

Twenty carloads of $40 ore were sent out by Weaver and Steelsmith, lessees at the Findley Saturday. Their lease will run only 30 days longer, and in consequence a large force is breaking all the ore in sight.

SOME RECENT STRIKES MADE ABOUT CAMP.

Morris and associates have struck ore on the Unexpected on Bull hill, owned by the Central Consolidated company. This ground was worked about 18 months ago by Messrs. Giddings and Lennox of Colorado Springs, and several carloads were sent out that went good pay. The ore shoot was lost with depth. The new lessees believe they have again picked it up. A little ore is now being saved and a trial shipment will be made before Christmas.

In doing assessment work on the Silhouette, which adjoins the Pharmacist on the north, pay ore has been opened up. No effort will be made, however, at present to mine any of it as the property is in conflict with the Pharmacist, and until courts decide the ownership no ore will be sent out.

Jackson and associates, leasing on the Jerry Johnson claim, are crosscutting at a depth of 300 feet for the Damon ore shoot. Several seams of ore have been encountered carrying good values, and the lessees expect to enter the shoot with almost any shot.

Leasers on the Excelsior of the same company have opened about eight inches of high-grade ore at a depth of 270 feet from surface. They are now drifting on the vein, and will soon have a good block of stoping ground opened up. Negotiations for the purchase of this lease are under way.

Lessees working on the Trilby on Bull hill, have made a new strike at the 150-foot level. The ore is about 18 inches in width and assays from three to as high as ten ounces.

EXCELLENT SHOWING IN HAPPY YEAR CLAIM.

The Central Consolidated company is the owner of one of the best prospects on Bull hill. The name of the property is the Happy Year, situated on the west slope of the hill, which is being worked by Riley and associates under lease. Riley has associated with some of the heavy stockholders of the company and very little attention is being paid at present to breaking ore. At a depth of 230 feet six feet of ore that will assay without sorting $30 a ton is being followed. The shaft is to be put down 75 feet deeper before drifts are extended on the vein. In the first level below the tunnel level the ore shoot was proven up for a distance of 90 feet and there is still in the breast about 18 inches of pay rock. At this level a winze is now being sunk and an assay taken yesterday across the entire bottom showed the good value of $150 to the ton.

LESSEES ON CRIPPLE CREEK CON. HAVE ORE.

The properties of the Cripple Creek Consolidated company are being brought to the front under the leasing system. On the north end of the Colorado Boss on Gold hill Terrill & Burke have an immense showing in their shallow shaft which is down about 45 feet. They have made several large shipments, the average grade of which has been about $30 a ton. In the bottom there is now 10 feet of this kind of rock. A new electric hoist has been installed and the lessees are confident when stoping is started that they will easily ship at least 25 tons a day. On the Colorado Boss No. 3, U. S. Hollister and associates of Denver, have opened up from the tunnel workings a nice body of ore. These lessees have expended in the neighborhood of $20,000 in development work, but they are confident that they now have ore enough in sight to make them even at least. A crosscut is being driven west to cut the north extension of the Mary McKinney dike which is known to run through the ground.

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology Has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine, as well as in mechanics. Since Adam delved, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality, causing itching scalp, falling hair and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. Herpicide at all druggists. It is the only destroyer of dandruff.

STORIES OF THE STREET

Colorado Springs People Are Talking About It on Every Corner.

It is sometimes an easy matter to fool the public, but you can't keep it up very long. They are sure to find you out, and every time a man is fooled another skeptic is made. Skepticism is allowable when reading in a home newspaper about some incident occurring in San Francisco or Iowa, but the circumstances are entirely different when it refers to someone right here at home, friends and neighbors, people you know, whom you can see and with whom you talk it over. This is the kind of evidence at the back of Doan's Kidney Pills—home statements by home people, and the astonishing local work they have been doing has caused more talk among our citizens than the doings of any other mouth wonder. Read the following:

Mrs. H. C. Hughes, corner of Cascade and Vermijo streets, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills helped me amazingly and I know they are a reliable remedy for the kidneys. I caught a cold, which settled in the small of my back and in the kidneys and caused me so much pain I was quite miserable. Reading an advertisement in our paper about Doan's Kidney Pills, I sent my son to Jones & Wellington's drug store, 109 N. Tejon street, for a box. The treatment relieved me almost at once and up to date there has been no recurrence of the symptoms."

For sale by all dealers; price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

To those who inspected the Mountain Boy during the last two weeks we say, come again; if you don't admit that we will soon have a mine and a big one, then we don't know one when we see it. You don't have to hurry—the electric hoist will carry you down and up slowly if you wish. Everybody welcome. Call or write for modest little booklet about Mountain Boy, then show it to your broker and ask him if he knows of any stock quite so good for quick profit or safe investment. Our offices are on the ground floor and always in charge of one of the firm.

THE COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Colorado Springs, Dec. 16.—The mining stock market was generally weak today and in some instances sensational losses. The decline in Elkton is almost beyond parallel in the annals of that stock's movements, while El Paso, Gold Dollar and many other of the shares which have been active manifested weakness from the start to finish. If the decline in the market were limited to Elkton, and to a less extent to others, there would be some reason to suppose that it was merely a bear raid, but the general weakness shows a condition which must arouse the mining fraternity to serious consideration. There must be a legitimate reason back of the insistent declines in all classes of stocks, and the longer stubbing is indulged in, the more serious will be the effects of the decline. It would appear as if some vast readjustment were taking place in the prices of stocks, as the inevitable course of things; and if this is true, and if it is, in any way warranted, the brokers will not help themselves any by denying it. That Cripple Creek was never in a better condition goes without saying; but that statement may need some qualification which should not be fought shy of. It is a time for unflinching honesty. There is small doubt that the bears are at work. The borrowing of stock is as easy a business as ever the 30-day rending was; but the bears could not have things their own way unless some powerful conditions were on their side.

Elkton opened at $1.22 this morning and sold as low as $1.29¾, recovering to $1.30½ at the close. Doctor went straight down to 42 without any recovery at all. Gold Dollar closed at 10, a slight recovery over the bottom price, 9¾; and Isabella closed at 28¾. Lots of 500 shares sold as low as 26½. Portland sold at $2.75, Pointer at 38 and Acacia went down to 11½, while Mint went at 5. Vindicator alone kept up splendidly at $1.24. Trading was very good during the entire day, in the prospects lists as well as among the mines. The greatest losses were in the mines list; but declines were common in the other departments, Sunset-Eclipse being noticeable by going to 11.

EASTERN MARKETS

By Associated Press.

New York, Dec. 16. There was no renewal of consequence of the pressure of liquidation in the stock market today, but there was manifest hesitation about undertaking any operations for an advance. A handful of stocks were advanced by professional operations in a seeming attempt to induce a following and to influence the general market. The evidently easy condition of the money market encouraged this movement, but the fear of a recurrence of stringency and the unsettling influence of the renewed weakness in Amalgamated Copper discouraged its extension. Amalgamated Copper started downwards from the opening but recovered momentarily to ¼ above last week's closing. It gravitated for the rest of the day with only slight rallies to the low point at 61½, where it closed. The fluctuations in the stock were not violent and traders described its action as a fall of its own weight, without any apparent artificial pressure. The net loss is 3¾. It is taken for granted that the renewed decline foreshadows a reduction in the dividend on Thursday, as the disbursement of dividends by a subsidiary company is tied up by injunction. The rate of dividend is expected by speculators at all the way from one per cent. quarterly down to passing it entirely. Fears are professed, also, that the cut in the selling price of raw copper made last week is a preliminary to further cuts and to a war of rates. It was worthy of remark that in London the price of futures closed higher than for spot for the first time since the first week in October. The prospect of the unsettling influence of mystery and uncertainty over the Amalgamated dividend rate until its actual declaration was sufficient in itself to discourage activity in the general market.

The condition of the world's money was easier all around today. The only stocks whose strength was conspicuous were New York Central, Manhattan, St. Louis and San Francisco, Long Island, the Iowa Centrals, Rubber Goods preferred and Colorado Fuel. Their gains were all curtailed in sympathy with the late weakness in Amalgamated Copper. Net changes generally are narrower.

Total sales 505,500 shares.

The bond market was dull and irregular. Total sales, par value, $1,755,000.

United States ref 2s advanced ½ and the 5s coupon ½ per cent. on the last call.

POINTER MEN DISSATISFIED

May Attempt to Block the Deal for Consolidation---New Zealand Company Lease.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Dec. 16. It is understood that minority stockholders in the Pointer company are dissatisfied with the apportionment of stock in the Mint Consolidated company, granted to the Pointer for its share in the consolidation, which was effected last week. The Pointer has been the big mine of the locality, and although every other particular of the consolidation was satisfactory, the Pointer stockholders do not relish their share of 425,000 shares of stock as against the 1,350,000 granted to the old Mint company. As far as acreage is concerned, the matter seems reasonable enough, but it is contended that the Pointer is a rich for ore for some time to come. The Pointer has declared two dividends, making a total of $25,000, and at the time that the September dividend was passed by the directors, it was announced that the Pointer ore was dipping rapidly into Mint ground. E. H. Newland of Victor, is behind the movement to block the deal, and it has been intimated unless the 250,000 shares of treasury stock have been issued, that he has in his control a majority of the stock. Further developments are awaited.

The Findley company is getting its plant of machinery in place to take operations on the Bull hill property immediately upon the expiration of the Findley Leasing company's term. The plant which has been installed was formerly in use on the Mucky Guss and is fitted for 1,000 feet of depth.

The Cripple Creek Mining company's lease on the Deadwood No. 2 will begin shipping again by the first of the year. The crosscut extended at the bottom of the shaft should cut the ore shoot within the next fifteen feet of work. The shaft was recently deepened 100 feet adding that much more sloping ground on the rich ore body. Deadwood No. 2 has always yielded an excellent steady output, and under the management of R. P. Russell, even greater things are looked for within the first few months of 1902. The block was formerly operated by Perkins, Buegbner and company.

The New Zealand company has granted a lease on portions of the Trachyte, Pauper and Deadwood properties to the Practical Leasing company. James McIlvee has been put in charge and it is expected that the property will commence production very shortly. The lease was for 18 months at graded royalties and included some ground that has formerly proved very productive.

A good strike is reported on the New Bedford company's property on Cow mountain. The company is controlled by Boston parties who have spent considerable money in development work. A tunnel has been extended into the hill for 700 feet, and at a depth of 350 feet a 20-foot dike is being developed. Pay assays are obtained from streaks running through the dike, making the whole body nearly in pay ore.

Lessee Davis, operating a block on the X-10-U-8 claim on Battle mountain has attained a depth of 150 feet to the shaft, to be extended to the 200-foot point before development work is commenced.

HER BLACK VELOUR JACKET AND CHINCHILLA HAT.

The winter girl has adopted the velour jacket with enthusiasm. It is so becoming, and really within reach of any but a very slender purse. She also loves fashion's latest fad—the Chinchilla hat, with soft pink roses nestling in the dainty fur. Thus arrayed she is a joy to herself and when she is as pretty as the particular "she" of our photograph, a joy to the beholder also. This little jacket has at the throat a smart rosette of accordion pleated taffeta with ends. It is edged with rows of black satin.

SPECIAL EXHIBIT OF COPLEY PRINTS

A special exhibition of Copley Prints is being held today and tomorrow at Foltz & Hardy's.

Copley Prints are justly popular in Colorado Springs. They are known the world over as the highest grade of art reproduction. At the Paris exposition in 1900 they took the highest award (Grand Prix) over all competing exhibits. Many new things have lately been added to the line, which will be on display for the first time in Colorado Springs.

Foltz & Hardy are the exclusive representatives for the genuine "Copley Prints" in Colorado Springs.

A NEW CHURCH IS BEING PLANNED

It is understood that the congregation of St. Paul's M. E. church of this city is planning to erect a $15,000 church building early next year.

The building is to go up on the lots now owned by that church at 425 South Nevada avenue. Plans for a new edifice were drawn up some time ago and work was started on the building. It was then decided to delay work for a year but the congregation has decided not to wait so long. Work on the building will commence with the opening of spring, according to present plans.

GARFIELD EXHIBIT CONTINUES TODAY

The Garfield school art exhibit will be open today from 3:30 until 10 p. m. and it is likely that the attendance will be the largest ever recorded upon a similar occasion in Colorado Springs. The exhibit is praised by all who have seen it and the patrons of the school have urged that it be open today instead as the cold weather on Friday and Saturday prevented many from attending who were anxious to be there.

"JUST-BEFORE-DAWN."

It is not often that a play of such merit as Hugh Gibson's "Just Before Dawn" is presented at popular prices, and great credit is due Mr. Grant Pauley, manager of the Temple theater for securing it and it was only on account of the large seating capacity of the Temple theater that the company was induced to play at popular prices.

Mr. Hugh Gibson has written a story of intense interest. He has studied all available sources of information, and presents a most real picture, painstaking with life, of the sturdy men of the mines.

The company numbers such finished actors as Forbes Curtis, who played one of the leading roles in the New York production of "Alabama," Charles A. McGrath, an actor whose ability is well known to all playgoers; Miss Leah Courtney, who as "Hortense", is an actress whose character work has attracted favorable comment from the best of critics.

In speaking of this play the Omaha Bee says: "One of the brightest bits of comedy work seen here for some time is that difficult piece of work which is so well done in the second act of 'Just Before Dawn' by Mr. Curtis and Miss Courtney." This play comes to the Temple theater on Thursday, December 19, 1901, for one performance. Popular prices will prevail.

TROUBLES IN HAWAII.

Observations of Representative Hill During His Tour.

Representative E. J. Hill (Rep., Conn.) has during the recess made a tour of the world, consuming five months and 15 days. He visited Hawaii, Guam, the Philippines, China, Japan, and Siberia, going through the Amur valley and home through Russia. This trip gave him an intimate personal acquaintance with many of the questions awaiting congressional action. To your correspondent Mr. Hill, in speaking today of the trip, said:

"I have read in the newspapers that Judge Humphreys of Honolulu, after being cleared by the attorney-general of the charges preferred against him by the bar association, has gone back to Hawaii with the purpose of fostering a movement for the removal of Gov. Dole. I hope he will not succeed, for no greater mistake could be made. We are responsible, not the Dole people, for the condition of things which exists there. The Cullom commission, sent to the islands to investigate, came back and officially advised the restriction of the suffrage practically to the plan which obtained under the republic, when it was limited, through a property qualification, to substantially the intelligent whites and respectable natives. When the Hawaiian bill came up, I opposed its present features and had the promise of the support of many of the leading members of congress; yet the bill passed by a large majority and by the stroke of a pen 3,000 intelligent, financially responsible voters were over-slaughed by 11,000 Kanakas admitted to the right of suffrage.

"I examined the situation at Honolulu with some care on my recent visit there, in view of my participation in the passage of that measure. As I expected, the Kanaka element in the campaign raised the cry, 'Kill the foreigner and restore the monarchy,' and came out of the election in triumph with an overwhelming majority of the local legislature, but fortunately lacked one vote of the two-thirds needed in the senate to override the veto power of Gov. Dole. The organic act requires that the proceedings of the legislature shall be conducted in English. The majority cannot speak English, and its members evade the law by having an interpreter and repeating every word said in either language. The sessions are limited to 60 days, and the tedious procedure in two languages practically cuts its down to 30. When I was there, 42 days had expired, and only four measures had been acted upon, and I did not wonder at it. The whole thing was the laughing stock of the intelligent people of Honolulu.

"I talked with many prominent citizens in Hawaii and, while my opinion was decidedly that the law should be amended at the next session of congress, I could not help admiring the position which these men took, that it was better to trust to the rapid increase of the intelligent vote in Honolulu since annexation, and to the manifest satisfaction of the native element with their own representative, to change the condition at the next election; in other words, that we should let things be rectified by the people themselves, rather than have the law changed by congress.

"As might be expected, the so-called carpet-bag element is by no means quiet. The men who made Hawaii, and who will give it a great future as a part of the American republic, are behind Gov. Dole, and any yielding to the carpet-bag element would bring about a condition of affairs which would surely be disgraceful to us as a nation. We have made one mistake in this matter in enacting the present law; we should not make another by completely surrendering the islands, with all their property interests to an uninteligent and irresponsible population, even though it be in the majority. These islands should have been kept as a colony, and not admitted as a territory of the union, and for a long time to come should have been governed with a firm hand.

"In my judgement, our position on the Russian sugar bounty question is a great mistake. On the steamer in which I made the trip from Nagasaki to Valdivostok there were 700 tons of American farming machinery, ordered for which had been given prior to the raising of the sugar question, and all of this was destined to Eastern Siberia and Manchuria. It was the opinion of every consul I met in that part of the world, and of every American merchant, that the orders for American machinery had practically stopped and that hereafter they would be taken by German manufacturers. Indeed, this was going on when I was there.

"The country from Vladivostok north, through Manchuria and down the valley of the Amur, is of wonderful fertility, and in a few years, owing to its rapid colonization, will become a great source of the wheat supply of the world. It seemed for 6,000 miles of the journey as if we were traveling through Minnesota or Nebraska. This would be an almost illimitable market for the agricultural and mining machinery which we are capable of supplying.

"The people are kindly disposed towards the Americans, and we ought to sell them what they want, and up to the time of our sugar decision the advantages were all in our favor. Russia has a peculiar way, by executive order, of making her tariffs vary according to the circumstances of the situation. For example, the duty on tea is much less at Vladivostok than at Odessa, the object being to have the tea come in at an eastern port and furnish freight for the transsiberian railroad, rather than go by water around by India, through the Suez canal, to the Black sea, to be landed at Odessa. As with the tea, so practically with everything else; the rule has acted as a preferential tariff in favor of American products by way of San Francisco and the Pacific ocean.

"The sugar-bounty decision was the result of a divided opinion by the three arbiters; Mr. Tcheuoe's holding that the rebate of tax was not a bounty, Mr. Somerville and Mr. Fischer disagreeing with him. I did not find a man in Russia, either an American or a native, who did not agree with Mr. Tcheuoe. The case is almost exactly parallel with our treatment of the alcohol question, and I do not believe that any one would claim that the United States government, because it rebates the tax on alcohol for export, thereby pays a bounty on export trade. The interests involved indirectly are indefinitely more important than the sugar question is or ever can be. That is purely a local question affecting southern Russia, and, as I understand, the whole amount of sugar imported here was worth less than $250,000. Over against it is the possible trade, through favored ports, by direct line of ocean traffic into what in 50 years will be one of the most influential nations of the world. (Special Washington dispatch to the New York Evening Post.

GROWING OLD GRACEFULLY.

Nothing is so interesting, nothing so restful and refreshing, as to see a man and woman who have lived together for a quarter of a century, starting down the shady slope of life, hand in hand, and happy as they were when she, with flushed face, heard love's old, sweet song. Marriage is often a failure, because people marry without even giving the future a thought marry and go to work and work without recreation till they are ready to die. I once heard a lady telling her daughter what to do when she was married. "Take a trip," she said; "get married in winter time when the world is cheerless and you are short on sunshine; take a trip to the southern states and turn winter into summer again; go to Little Rock, Hot Springs, or San Antonio, and get acquainted with your husband; watch him at the hotel, and see what he likes to eat, and how and when he likes it. It won't hurt you to study his comfort a little; it would make him love you more. But you must know something of him before you are married. Never marry a man who will laugh at the jokes on mothers-in-law at the minstrel show, or who will not buy his wedding tour tickets over the Missouri Pacific Railway."

New President For Rock Island Railroad.

Financial and railway circles are animated by reports current yesterday that official announcements are about to be made of important developments along "community of interest" lines. One of these—foreshadowing at least one new and big combination is that a new president is about to be elected by the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad. W. B. Leeds is the selection.

Mr. Leeds is one of the successful figures of Wall Street. He has had prominence in both railway direction and in industrial corporation management. One of the chief promoters of the American Tin Plate Co., he has been more successful than some of his more pyrotechnic associates in commanding the confidence of the powerful capitalists who brought the Tin Plate property into the United States Steel corporation. He is a millionaire, most of his fortune recently made, but still a tireless worker.

His affiliations in the railway world have been with the Pennsylvania system, a fact which gives edge to the theory that his acceptance of the Rock Island presidency is preliminary to the absorption of the latter by the Pennsylvania, or some such close traffic alliance as will in effect be much the same thing.

Mr. Leeds is the personal intimate of Judge Moore, whose purchases of Rock Island last winter and spring were on a scale so vast as to provoke a Wall Street sensation, the market price of Rock Island stock jumping up 50 or 60 points, making records never before approached by the stock. In the "Moore Brothers" Rock Island syndicate Mr. Leeds was financially interested from the start, as he was in the promotion of the metal "trusts." Recently it was gossip in Wall street that he contemplated the establishment of a stock exchange banking and brokerage house; but that enterprise, if ever it were in prospect, is not likely to be carried forward if Mr. Leeds is to take a post of such consequence, one making such drafts on his time, as must the chief executive office of this great southwestern railway system.

The Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railway is the property with which the late Gov. Flower was so closely identified.

The Rock Island road owns or leases 3,515 miles of railroad which it operates. Its main lines extend from Chicago to Council Bluffs, from Elwood to Liberal, Kan.; from Herrington, Kan., to Texal, Indian Territory, and from Horton, Kan., to Roswell, Col. Its various lines were consolidated in June, 1880.

The St. Joseph & Iowa railroad and the Kansas City & Topeka railroad were purchased January 1, 1889, and the Chicago, Kansas & Nebraska railroad in April, 1891. With the Chicago, Rock Island & Texas Railway company this company has financial and traffic agreements which give it practical control of the latter road.

Its general income account for the year ending March 31 last showed that its total earnings were $25,064,635.12 and its total expenses were $16,224,064.31. On July 31 last its capital stock was increased from $50,000,000 to $60,000,000, the increase of $10,000,000 to be used for extension of its lines and for the acquiring of the stock of connecting roads.

The company's funded debt consisted on April 1 last of $12,500,000, 6 per cent. first mortgage bonds, due in 1917, and of $35,581,000 gold mortgage 4 per cent. bonds, due in 1988. Its total property valuation on March 31 last was $120,805,860.

Many reports have been discussed this year as to plans looking to revolutionary changes in Rock Island control and directional alliances. It has been a matter of current report that the Pennsylvania company was after the property for a southwestern outlet, but this has been disputed by the persistent rumor that it is the Atchison that the Pennsylvania is after. W. B. Leeds, an old Pennsylvania man, is at the Rock Island's head. (New York Times.

WANT TO TELL IT

Many Enthusiastic Colorado Springs Citizens Want to Make It Public.

There is something in it.
When people want to talk about it.
Publicity of a good thing is good for the people.
Gratitude promotes publicity.
Enthusiastic citizens are talking—
Telling neighbors, telling friends;
Removing the stumbling block of doubt.
And so the work goes on.
Home indorsement is giving confidence.
Thousands are learning to appreciate it.
Here is a Williamette avenue citizen that does:
Mr. J. W. Brauer of 222 Williamette venue says: "After tinkering with cure cures for kidney trouble, after taking medicines from doctors for my kidneys, and after being compelled to give up a good business because I could not stand the work on the wagon, when Doan's Kidney Pills procured at Jones & Wellington's drug store, 109 N. Tejon street, cured me I am only too pleased to let the people of Colorado Springs who suffer with kidney complaint and its companion, backache, know of a remedy upon which they can depend."
Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers; price 50c. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

land were almost totally ignorant of New York and of the United States. But England has learned much of America during the last decade, and the name of New York city is as well known abroad as it is in this country. Commercial and social supremacy are crossing the Atlantic.

Perhaps in the future the scepter will pass away from New York. A hundred years ahead of this date San Francisco may be the center of commerce and the arts and trade of the world may float on the Pacific as it now floats on the Atlantic ocean. Meanwhile we may be proud of the rise of the great American city. (San Francisco Bulletin.
